
Products

CarCare

CarCare is a computerized expert software system that assists in the structural maintenance of railway cars. By using this software in conjunction with physical measurements, the operator can optimize the amount of time that a car can be operated safely without risking unexpected structural failure. The system assists with maintenance planning and trending, obviating the need for an expensive periodical maintenance program. Maintenance is thus performed on an as-required basis.